FLORIDA LABOR MARKET TRENDS

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT SECURITY • BUREAU OF LABOR MARKET INFORMATION

Highlights:

- Nonagricultural employment in Florida increased by 4.4 percent or 227,000 new jobs over the year to reach 5,402,100 in January. This annual growth rate shows considerable improvement over most of 1989. The annual average growth in jobs for 1989 was 4.1 percent, compared to 4.5 percent in 1988.
- Services remained as Florida's fastest growing industry (up by 7.1 percent) and the industry gaining the highest number of new jobs (103,100) in January over the year. Over one fourth of the new jobs were in the health services subsector.
- Florida's volatile industries, construction and manufacturing, both showed improvement in January. Construction exhibited losses in 1989, but recorded a gain in January of 1,300 jobs or 0.4 percent over the year. Manufacturing was growing at less than 1.0 percent in 1989, but was up in January by 7,600 jobs or 1.4 percent over the year.
- Florida's unemployment rate (seasonally adjusted) was 5.5 percent in January representing 349,000 jobless out of a labor force of 6,289,000. This rate remained above the national rate of 5.3 percent in January. Of Florida's 20 MSAs, the Gainesville MSA recorded the lowest unemployment rate (3.4 percent) in January while the Panama City MSA recorded the highest (11.8 percent), not seasonally adjusted.
- Revised nonagricultural employment estimates for 1988 and 1989 are enclosed.
